

Speaker Background and Contact Information

Diane Zosky, Ph.D., ACSW, LCSW, is an Associate Professor at Illinois State University in the School of Social Work and is the acting Interim Chair for the Department of History. She is a clinical social worker and completed her MSW from the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign in 1983 and her Ph.D. in clinical social work from Loyola University Chicago in 2000. Her interest of teaching, practice, and research has been in the area of domestic violence and she works part time with The Center for the Prevention of Abuse in Peoria as a facilitator for the Family Violence Intervention Program.

Illinois State University, School of Social Work
Campus Box 4420
Normal, IL 61790
309-438-5901 Social Work
dlzosky@ilstu.edu